General procedure and condition for financial contribution	For Civil Society Organisations: International CSOs (Civil Society Organizations) and non-Swedish civil society groups cannot apply for grants directly from Sida. Sweden's support to CSOs in development countries is channelled through Sida's 15 framework organisations. International CSOs interested in entering into a partnership with a Swedish CSO should contact the organisation first, as Sida's support to CSOs in development countries is always channelled through a Swedish CSO. The local CSO can present their project proposal to a relevant Swedish organisation and apply for funding. Neither international CSOs nor civil society groups from other countries than Sweden can apply directly from Sida for any of these grants. For Businesses: Do you have an idea, a proposal, a product or service or business model that you believe would benefit people in poverty and contribute to sustainable development? Then you have come to the right place. Please read more about how we work and what we support on this website, and if you have an idea that you believe fits the B4D programme, please contact us or the embassy at B4d@sida.se.
